Seller's Insights

The design of these two properties demanded a position with wide-water and expansive wrap-around views. We also wanted a quiet street with no through traffic. It took a while but we found it. When you compare this position to other Broadbeach properties, the expansive water, the views to both the city skyline and the hinterland, you will truly appreciate this position for what it is.

Waking up in this home will be a daily reminder of how fortunate and blessed you are. You will start your day with positivity, gratitude and enthusiasm; it's impossible not to!

Everyone that arrives at this home, whether they are family or friends, is immediately impressed. If you like to entertain, you will love the flow from your internal living space to the alfresco dining, BBQ and even out onto your own private beach! Your weekends will literally feel like a mini vacation...
