Suburb Profile

Situated In the southern suburbs of the Gold Coast. Robina is renowned as one of the first master-planned residential communities in Australia. The successful development of Robina into a thriving residential and commercial hub has placed it among Australia's most effectively devised neighbourhoods and cemented its status as one of the Gold Coast's fastest growing suburbs.

Robina is home to many landmarks, including the popular Robina Town Centre – a shopping and dining precinct, Bond University and Robina Hospital. For the sports lovers, Robina offers the Glades Golf Course, as well as the Cbus Super Stadium which has been home to the Gold Coast Titans NRL team since 2008.

Robina enjoys excellent connectivity with other parts of the Gold Coast through its three main arterial roads and two major bus stations, which operate at regular and high frequency intervals.

With remarkable infrastructure and a wide selection of state and private schools, Robina is an ideal suburb for families. The suburb boasts a plethora of picturesque parks and is a mere short drive from stunning beaches and the idyllic hinterland.

Robina's unrivalled lifestyle offerings have generated a strong sense of attachment among its residents, making it a highly sought-after suburb.

Robina presents a compelling prospect for both residents and investors, with a growing population and impressive price appreciation. Its strategic location at the geographic heart of the Gold Coast, in close proximity to every essential amenity, yet sufficiently far from the tourist strip, has made it an immensely popular choice.
